Dear Friend Emory

You can see how rich I am getting using the above letter heads - plenty of envelopes and no paper. Very sorry indeed to hear of your hard luck.

The horse market certainly is a damper not only on our feelings but their pockets as well.

There is a friend of mine Joe Dennis father whose mare either picked up a nail or wrenched herself has not been able to put a foot under <sup>her</sup> for the past five weeks. Would you trade Charley

Dear Edward

I write to you to thank you for your kind letter - also to ask you to look in the old Poplar Lane Bible & find out for me, who your great grand father John Regester Emory married.

A gentleman in Baltimore wrote to me to find out for him -

Did you ever hear that your Grand father Gen. Thomas Emory married Miss Skinner before he married Miss Lansley - Please look in the bible about this too - I never heard it - The gentleman who wrote to me so states; but I think he must be mistaken - With
