

out exception the commonest white man I ever had to live with. He has scarcely a particle of character.
& in some ways I would not trust him at arms length.

Our traveller is an Indiana farmer & all tho' he has been through a western college, he is pretty much like his father must have been before him. He is as straight forward as can be except for his back woods ways
is a very fine fellow.
