

Our wagon man did not arrive tonight I guess he got frozen. Mr Beard stayed here to visit this afternoon.

He came about three o'clock & stayed to tea. Some body said something about hills being cool this kind of weather.
Mr Beard said without cracking a smile, "I never did like a d-d rag house any way".

We are to move the first thing in ^{the} morning. I think about seven or eight miles. I think we will be with in six miles of Chandler then. That will give us a chance to get more than two miles a week.

I have to dress my leg before I turn on or I will shake it out my letter short. The doctor says I ought to be out by Tuesday.
I only hope I am. I expect to freeze tomorrow because I will have to ~~walk~~ ride all the way.
