

will be a pretty big system if it does not get bought out. I only wish I could have gotten on the Colorado end. The work
we are on here is not to be the main line,
at least only part of
it. If I had only
had a high school education before I came out here I would not think of going back to school again. At present I am right where I could go straight ahead.
And I do not see any possible thing to do but to throw it all
up & go back to school.
