

I remembered, ^{after writing} that I had put that literature in my desk. So you need not bother about it.

I would like very much to get some visiting cards.
They are things that one does not need very often out here. But like a six shooter when the occasion does ~~not~~ arise one needs them mightily bad. Could you see about getting them for me the first time you go to Baltimore.
Give the down comfort