it - not. But - it isn't.

He & the workman Mr. Hyle bought the extra things I needed.

Of course I felt blue for the first couple of days after I arrived. But there was had snow & rainy weather. You know that it's always hard on one's spirits.

Mr. Beard is a crusty old chap. He believes in giving every one a crossing out as they come on. So you can never tell whether he is mad or not.
He was very considerate to me. But he considered the other fellows.

We are stopping at a Hotel at present while we fit out
