Dear Mother:

I am getting to be pretty bad about writing I know. But when we are on the go all day Sunday as well as all the week it is very hard to keep our correspondence up & cloths around. Yes I miss most of your letter I think. But the only way to make sure or to know when one is lost is to number them. I wonder some of them go astray as they are forwarded 4 or 5 times for they catch up to us. We sometimes have two post-offices the same week. All ^{our} mail goes to Shuman which is about thirty miles north of our present camp. Then it is forwarded
