

know it is my birthday so I have to do something to celebrate.

Another I wish you would send me out the "Sun" until I come home. Maybe I can catch up with the times a bit.
To tell you the truth I was dissatisfied when I opened that box of clothes the other day. I was so much in hopes that there would be a box of caramel in it. My mouth has been set caramel wise for a long time.

The contractors here are causing lots of trouble. They have just found out that they will not make any thing on the job. So they
