

Mrs. F. B. Himes
Centerville
Queen Anne Co
Maryland.

St. John's College
Feb. 21, 1899.

My own darling Mother,
I have just received a long letter from you telling me all about your adventures during the blizzard which I know must have been summer one. Because I remember the one when the lane was so blocked up that we could not get out and I remember how Mrs. Cole had to walk to town with a basket after some oat-meal and stuff.

Well you asked me a few questions which I