Thursday

My dear Alice,

It is a long time since we have had any intercourse, but you know what a good for nothing I am about letter-writing. I have really had a good many to answer - I have had an old time attack of neuralgia. Do you remember the time you gave me morphia? I have thought it prudent to stay in the house - Isabel & Annie were here this morning, I said it was real neuralgia matter, so I will talk to you instead of going down to Chuck. I know you will be glad to
