This year, it was fine the only thing bad about it was poor Mother's sickness.

I hope she will be able to take her trip to the Mountains before long.

Did you carry away a pleasant impression of West River? most young people that come down seem to like it all right

It was four A.M. when I landed in New York that Monday after leaving home, and that night had to work until half past nine.

It looks as if they feared I might be out of training.
