

and wanted to break me in as soon as possible, does it not?

Last Friday I came down here on some work, and expect to be here two or three more weeks.

The change has been very pleasant, and I find Geneva lots more attractive at this season of the year than New York.

Geneva is quite a pretty city and is situated on Seneca Lake. Most of the streets have shade trees along both sides.

I know you would like the lake since you are fond of the water.

I have been either swimming or rowing every day since my arrival.

You no doubt think often of "Spider Legs" and long to see him. Never mind I heard him wish his Eastern Shore cousins would invite him down, in which case you would surely see him.

It seemed funny last week to have such cool weather that one could not sit out doors at night, unusual for August!

You know those pictures which I took trouble to
