Sunday, Dec. 2, 1894.

My dear Mother,

I meant to tell thee that in thy last letter, thee spoke of a letter from the dean of Pennsylvania about Alan, and said thee would enclose it.

But thee evidently forgot to do so, and I should like to see it if it is not too late.

I enclose to thee a check for $4.80, as thee gave me five dollars on Thanksgiving to pay for the car-fare to the game. I spent only twenty cents coming back, and I hope that thee has not been inconvenienced by my forgetting to return the change sooner.

Mrs. Kay has invited both Clem and
