

Mrs. Howard Wood,
1016 Spruce St
Philadelphia,
Penna.

November 26, 1894.

My dear Mother, Edward and I saw the Dean today, and were promptly refused leave of absence. He took father's address, and may write to him.

I don't see that any good will be done by his writing, if he is not going to grant anything.

Father's letter came this morning, and I showed it to the Dean, and that's all. Clem called on Chamberlain, but he was out, so that he has not yet been refused again.

There is one comfort, and that is, that in the college department every-
