My dear Mother,

We have just had a very pleasant afternoon and evening at the Rays'. They are certainly very polite, no kind to us, for they had intended to ask us to take our Thanksgiving dinner with them, and are going to invite us to a dance at their house in December. Besides this,

Mrs. Ray has been the means of getting us an invitation to subscribe to three dances. Mrs. Ray was not at home today, but Mr. Ray was and invited us to stay to supper, which we did.

Speaking of the Rays' supper makes me think of the Ranch. We have a new and very green girl to wait on our table now, and she is constantly
