

our school and Penn³ Charter. DeLancey is certainly doing pretty well this year as she is third in the association and played a good game against Penn Charter.

Don't read the following paragraph to the family.

I have been several times, in fact every Sunday except three since I have been here, to hear Rev. Dr. Mc Kenzie speak. I think that he is without exception the best preacher I have ever heard, though that is not saying much as I have not heard many good ones. Well, he seems to me to be very earnest and sincere, and with it all, he is not, as I thought Cousin Charley Clark was sometimes, monotonous in comparisons and similes.

I do not cast any reflections on Cousin Charley's speaking, as his earnestness
