Phila.
Penna.

Glen wants me to tell thee Nov. 15, 1894.
that the price of seats for the game is $2.50

My dear Mother,
If it makes no difference to thee, I would rather not have a party to go to the Thanksgiving game, if I can have a good prospect of a card party or a dance next January.

I am willing to pay as much for it, as I should have to ^{pay} for the football game.

I do not want to have anything of the kind during the Christmas vacation, as it is too hard to get the people you want. Therefore, as I am likely to get home for a few days during the mid-year exams, I think it would be well to postpone my
