

foot-ball with the Perkin's Hall team, I have not so much chance for tennis. Clem, of course, can not play in games, but practises with them. Edward distinguished himself the other day, by scoring the winning touch-down against some High School, just before time was called.

As I want to write a few lines to Rachel now, I'll say good-bye.

With very much love I am,
Thy Son,
Howard.