My darling Alice,

I am sorry at the time much to my disgust - as I hoped to be home with you today -

The Erie R.R. side tracked one of the Corn binders and it did not arrive until yesterday entire too late to start it - and it now looks as if it would rain at any minute. I pray it will be clear tomorrow that I may get through and reach Phila - tomorrow night as I want to get home soon as possible to have some one look at my ailment - which will be a relief of mind - I feel now that I am gaining strength
