My darling Alice,

I did not write you last night - as I was at a place with no conveniences and I was very tired.
 I am glad to say the cough seems to have almost left me.
 It is almost as warm today as summer - yet I found snow yesterday but it disappeared last night - as we had a south wind.
 I will be in New York - tomorrow on my way to Boston - where you can address me
