My darling Alice,

I have just read your letter of the 17th. Which is a great comfort to me as they always are - I am glad to hear you are about your ailments and all the rest are well - If I saw you I would go over right after the 1st. or as soon as you feel the interest paid and see your mother - if she comes so truly - I hope the men will make good headway - getting sails - by all means have the wood hauled out of the low places I would rack it up near the road
