My darling Alice,

I have just received your Sunday's letter as I have been out of Auburn since Monday - and I became so restless for a letter concluded to come in tonight -

I am very glad to see you went to Bath - as I think it will do you a great deal of good - and must comfort your Mother some - I have read Jack's letter - and it seems a shame that the poor fellow has to endure so much when he is trying hard to make a living for
