My own darling Alice.

I wrote you a card last night and I hoped to have a chance to write you a nice long letter tonight but I am so tired I will have to cut my letter short - I returned last night at one - was up at 6:30 and I have been going all day - we have had all the seasons today. I hope to get back to New York tomorrow night - early Thursday - when I hope to find a letter from you - It seems like a month since I
