Philadelphia, Pa.,

I wished it was so I could spend all my Sundays with you in our quiet - nice warm room in winter and cool ~~in~~ comfortable in summer - then I could stand no business all right -

I guess it is just as well to have Curry Blake do all the work - all all hands and don't cost any more - I am glad to hear you have the knots off your mind but the March 1st you that is not far away - I have not heard from Harry - I suppose finances keep him from writing much - He seems to be keeping up all right - I know they boys would do better with some one else -

Your ever loving
Harry
