My darling Alice.

I received your letter of the 23rd yesterday upon my return from Phila - you were very lucky in getting back so soon - I hope he may improve in his digestion I had been fearfully cold since yesterday morning - and the wind has been fearful - part of the time has blown 8 or 10 mile per hour I did not suppose you would be able to handle the oats and grass seed - tho the Journal you get there in the letter - get I would wait - until the hands come in - then you will not be to any extra expense - Clover seed must be very high - this Spring. I pray we may have a good wheat crop - and get good prices - then we may be able to pay Dudley - and clear up our floating debts if as we can hold along - I fear Conrey was reached home next Saturday if so he will have the Baugnot - then I will not
