

almost every cent I had.

But please don't send it to me unless you can surely get along without it.

I am invited out to a dance Saturday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock. And then I am invited to a musical tea. I am leading a very dissipated life don't you think so? I am glad I passed all my exams. because it makes me feel as though I would some day be able to pass my exams as a fine doctor. I guess I will have to stop as it is bed-time. From yours,
