out when I come home - as it is not well to write much - as we are so apt to misunderstand you - I know I want to discuss many our with you - also my family - but - Jessie and Marie do not feel to me like sisters - I look upon them as I do my children - and I think you see that I love them all - but you are first - and I hope you may grow more essential to each other - You were very kind to me when dear Mauna did - I really feel if it was not for you I would lose my mind - don't let's say any more about this, but I will try to comfort myself - and my blessings - I can after doubt get silent - I'm ashamed to ask you for money for mine is gone - May God keep you and the dear children for me - It is now 12 o'clock - as I go to Bridgwater tomorrow and I want you to get this Monday your own father
