My own darling Alice, Thinking you will be anxious to know how I got along - I write before returning the coachman had me at the depot a few minutes before train time - but owing to the check in the R. & O. fund - the train was fifty minutes late - therefore did not reach New York until nearly 12 - I found Mr. Hazell and Stubbs waiting for me - and I managed to get my things all fixed for tomorrow - I have just read your letter that you sent by special delivery and you Can not begin to know how it makes me love you and long to be with you - I am so glad I made a break - while you were at the Fishers - I really had a perfect day and as I said in my former letter it is a great privilege to have such friends.

I hope you will improve - I wanted to much to remain with you tonight - and I feel very much like complaining of some duty - but we know how you reach home your own devoted
Harry
