My darling Alice,

I suppose you are home and thoroughly installed.
I hope you found everything in good shape — and are feeling well again — you can't feel how anxious I am to get to New York that I can have the pleasure of reading your letter. and I hope Monday and Tuesdays heat did not give you more Grippe.
I found Mrs. Fisher would be paid out from the heat Sunday — as the perspiration stood out on her face —
