Riverhead, L. I., June 6, 1900

My darling Alice,
I wrote you and mailed you a money order from Brookwood yesterday which I hope you have received - Let me know if you get in a cramp for money and I will send you what you want - for I can draw it - as I do not want you to worry for money with any other case - I hope Mr. Curry is much better - should oh die let me know and I would make an effort to meet you in Beale if you have going to the funeral
