New York June 10 1900,

My darling Alice,
I arrived home last night - I also read your letters of the 5th & 6th and 8th. You surely had a serious time after having me particularly the rayon wheels screaming - which I heard nearly drove you out - I am glad to know you and Annie are at peace - It turned out with the boys exactly as I expected - I would not allow

Have to take such trips again - for I can't help but worry you - I had my own coat and I made out splendidly - had I left it would surely have suffered - I will be very glad when Reg - comes as I think he is bad influenced with the boys - I am having about the same old time - just kept worrying all the time - I will write Mr. Conrey today to send you
