NEWTON, N. J., June 14 1900.

My darling Alice.

I longed to be with you when your Maama was buried - it is a very sad to see all the old people passing away -

I think Carter seems to me like a very clever fellow - I am glad to hear he has his appointment made - I know it will be very hard for him to give up his Summer - I am very sorry to hear Reg will be disappointed, for it will upset Jack I know.
I hope Harry will soon pick up - I want to see him very much -
