Madam:

In response to your recent letter concerning your above cited claim for the accrued pension due at date of soldier's death, I have to advise you that you should furnish the sworn statements of two persons who knew you from the death of your first husband - Horace Lewis, in 1896 to your marriage to soldier - September 28, 1905, showing whether you had been married during that period and, if so, to whom and when and how such marriage terminated.

Respectfully,

ECP/D

Commissioner
