

State of Virginia, County of Elizabeth City, ss:
Sworn to and subscribed before me this day by the above-named affiant, and I certify that I read said affidavit to said
affiant, including the words _____ erased,
and the words _____ added and acquainted thru with its contents before thru executed the same. I further certify that I am in nowise interested in said case, nor am I concerned in its prosecution; and that said affiant _____ personally known to me and that _____ credible person.

J. B. Brooker
(Official Signature.)
Clerk
(Official Character.)

Clerk of the Court in and for aforesaid County
_____, Esq., who hath signed his name to the affidavit, was at the time of so doing a _____ of the State, duly commissioned and sworn; that all his official acts are entitled to full faith and credit, and hereto is genuine.
Witness my hand and seal of office, this _____ day of _____ 18 ____.

Clerk of the _____

NOTE.—This should be sworn to before a CLERK OF COURT, NOTARY PUBLIC or JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. If before a JUSTICE or NOTARY, then CLERK OF COUNTY COURT must add his certificate of character hereon, and not on a separate slip of paper.

If a Notary Public (or Justice of the Peace) will put his signature and seal impress (if he has one) on a sheet of paper, and a Clerk of Court will certify that they are genuine, stating when his commission was dated and when it will expire, he can execute the papers to be used in one department only during his term of office without authentication by Clerk of Court.
Such certificate for each Department where many authentications are required will save much expense.
Several papers executed before one N. P., or J. P., on the same date, need County Clerk's Certificate on one only, if all are to be used in one case.
Write an affidavit just as you would write a letter, stating all the facts, circumstances, dates and places, as near as you can remember, and if of your own personal knowledge and observation, and state how you know what you say to be true.
