[NOTE.—Affiant should state means of knowledge.]

I know
Jimmah Rhodes was well acquainted with him. He died in January 1889. He used to complain continually of pain in his chest and lungs and this pain was caused by cold contracting in the army in line of duty. I was present at his death, was with him when he breath life his body. I closed his eyes. I was in daily contact with him. He was my class leader and when he got sick stayed by present at death Jan 89 pain in chest & lungs
