

Also personally appeared Wm J. Davis, residing at Wilmington and J. S. Davis, residing at Wilmington, persons whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit, and who, being by me duly sworn, say they were present and saw Geo. Bidart, the claimant, sign his name (or make his mark) to the foregoing declaration; that from the appearance of said claimant and their acquaintance with him, they have every reason to believe, and do believe, that he is the identical person he represents himself to be; and that they have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

(If witnesses sign by mark, two persons who can write must sign here)

The Act of June 27, 1890, requires, in case of a soldier or seaman:

1. That there has been a service of not less than ninety days in the war of the Rebellion.
2. That an honorable discharge from the service shall have been issued.
3. That a disability, permanent in character, not due to vicious habits, exists; question as to origin, not material.
4. The rates are graded from $6.00 to $12.00, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support by manual labor; pension in no way affected by rank.
5. A pensioner under prior laws may apply under this one; a pensioner under this law may apply under the general law; only one pension, however, can be drawn for the same period.
