

My Dear Clementina

2^d June

(14)

I am endeavouring to get out of the River but the wind is adverse, there is a Teyite is eight supposed to be the Medjesser - This will be the last letter I write you for some time, I wish I knew when you would depart from Plymouth that I might direct my letters so as that you should receive them in the shortest time possible, but if I don't hear from you I will continue to direct to Plymouth for one month from this date then to Husby St - I have written to Maria and told her that if she wants money that you will give her fifty pounds in September - I send you my Book of accounts with Couche, when you go to London send it to be filled up but not till the Dividends are paid in July
