

here meet them off the Island and retired them from our ships - but till a secret and confidential letter as it was called - was sent by Gen. Sphen and which was lying at Bermuda, we supposed the three B's were to be with us, now surely the contents of this letter should have been known to Sir A. Cook and Gen. B's - I was very much vexed as it detained me these six days at a period when very little was and is of much consequence the weekly session begins the next month -
