

I am much pleased to find how high James stands in his profession as a Soldier - he has a thorough other sort of way in conversation that puts him below his proper level - when called on to act he then rises to his proper standard.

I wish Wright was in this country but he must come out in employ I have written to him and to John sometimes eye on the subject, he was a good to go on there -

If I can do service on this station I hope Lockhart will go home only because he is my son.

he is a deserving fellow and I attribute our excursion to Washington
