I trust for a time that he will act with firmness and severity - all the Leaders should loose their lives as an atonement for the injury they have done their country - the Officers of the Army should be dismissed and be obliged hereafter to earn their Bread by Labour plenty will be found to publickly this place they have erased from the lowest depth to which they and their families should return, I cannot express the thoughts of another but I feel fondly flattered my self that you and I would not fight for gain, and if yet may be the case for mostly all France unite against them long it cannot become a Royal War - I have been very fortunate in my Voyage since I left the Havana - the wind is now fair and I hourly look for a sail from which we may gain further Intelligence
