

experience to government would be inconsiderable: but to you who are so versant with the subject, I need say no more, but conclude by expressing you that I shall feel, that I have done a good act, if I succeed in obtaining your aid, in forwarding the cause of this meritorious class of men.

I remain my dear Sir -
Your most faithful servant
Wm. H. Croker

Wm. H. Croker