

[ 257 ]

ARMY OF THE U. STATES.

MAJOR-GENERALS, (as far as could be obtained)
James Wilkinson, Henry Dearborne, Thos. Pinckney, Jacob Brown, Andrew Jackson, Morgan
Lewis, Thomas Fournoy, George Izzard.

BRIGADIER--GENERALS.—Thomas H. Cushing,
Joseph Bloomfield, Lewis Cass, John P. Boyd,
James Winchester, John Chandler, Wm. H. Winder, Henry Burbeck, Winifield Scott, Alexander Macomb, Benjamin Howard, Edward P. Gaines, Daniel Bissel, John Smith, Duncan M'Arthur, — Ripley, Moses Porter.

Abimael Y. Nicoll, Inspector General.

———Tilton, Physician and Surgeon-General.

(The frequent changes which the casualties of war occasion in the army list, and the difficulty of procuring a correct one, has obliged the editor to give only a list of the major and brigadier-generals, with the following order, dividing the frontiers into military districts, with the names of the officers commanding each district.)

ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,

WASHINGTON CITY, 19th March, 1813.

GENERAL ORDERS.

The frontiers of the U. States are divided into nine military districts, as follows :

Massachusetts and New Hampshire, No. 1

—— Gen. ———

Rhode Island and Connecticut, No. 2

Brig. Gen. Thomas Cushing, head quarters, Providence, R. I.

New York from the sea to the highlands, and the state of N. Jersey, No. 3

Brig Gen. John P. Boyd, hd. qrs. N. York.

Z