

Date Wind Remarks etc HMS TERROR in Chesapeake Bay

Monday
October 24, 1814
NW^bN AM Fresh By¹ & squally. At 5³⁰ sent the jolly Boat on shore with the carpenters to cut a spar for the Main Yard, the old one being sprung. At 8 D⁰W² Fresh By¹ & squally at times. Snup^d working up junk, making Rope of spun yarn. Noon D⁰W² served out slops. PM Fresh By¹ & squally at times. Snup^d as necc^y. At 3¹⁰ heavy squalls, reard^d to a whole cable on the small bower. (6) D⁰W² Gig ret^d from the shore. up D⁰ (8) Lt air & fine. Up Fore Top~~mast~~ mast Staysail. (10) D⁰W² Midnight D⁰W².

Tuesday
October 25, 1814
V^{ble} AM Lt. By¹ & fine. Down Fore topmast staysail. at 6 hove in on the small bower to half a cable. At 8 D⁰W² Mod^{te} By¹ & fine. Snup^d as necc^y. 3⁰N Devastation came alongside with our shells. Noon D⁰W² 3⁰E PM Mod^{te} & fine W² Snup^d getting in shells from Devastation. At 3³⁰ Devastation cast off having delivered the whole of the shells. Boats return^d with Plank from the shore and the Boats of the Squad^{ts} left the Island. (Sharps?) 5⁰SW At 4 D⁰W² 6 D⁰W² up Boats 8 D⁰W² Midnight D⁰W²