

to purchase it, but I believe it wd cost more than half the sum which has been voted.

You will perceive by the papers which Mr. Home, the Hospital Dispenser sends you, how hardly used he has been. The Transport Board, I am persuaded, did, ⁱⁿ his decided or ex parte evidence against ^{him}, for I have ^{no} hesitation in giving it as my opinion, that the Disputes amongst the Offrs of the General Hospital here, have originated more, in the arrogant & overbearing disposition of the Surgeon Mr. Rawlands, than in any fault on the part of Mr. Home or others, or the raising of any real abuses at the Hospital, and thus
