My dear Sir

Since my letter of yesterday the Goliath has come in, also the Mermaid with the Snake Dragon Privateer.

As the Expedition for La Parmanquady will be ready, that is to say such part of it as goes from hence, and which amounts only to about 40 Artillery men, with the necess<sup>y</sup> Artillery Stores, to sail on Tuesday next, it is impossible to get the Lictor ready to accompany it, <sup>but I shall</sup> but I shall send Lieut. Hall, or Col.
Litchington, who is to command, is particularly desirous of having Sir.
Captain Senhouse's local knowledge, has induced me to decide upon
