

sending him also, instead of allowing <sup>him</sup> to go to Providence with the Larsons, and I must endeavour to find some other conveyance for them.

The Martin, should go Home this Summer, she is not in a state to keep the Sea with safety in bad weather.

Gov. Swanwick's death will give you a vacancy for one of your own people, I will keep <sup>a watch</sup> ~~an eye~~ at hand for whoever you may appoint to her.

I hope to get Leander out in two days - she has become very heavy in the strength of this year.

Capt. Sykes has joined, & Leibel seems disposed to wait here till he hears from Home, altho'
