

I have recommended him to proceed there without delay.
 Lt. Flaxington, Sir M. Warren, nephew, finds he can't get confirmed, his time not having been regularly served.
 I have therefore complied with his request, & he is allowed to resign his appointment as a Lieut. & to be put on the Books of the Junior as a Mid, in the very short time he wants to complete his servitude. He will then again pass his Examination, and I shall give him an Order to act in the same vacancy - he has filled in the past. In allowing him to resign his appointment, I am aware, that I am using my powers, - but the young man's case, is a hard one; and
