Agent for Officers of War & L. L. New Providence

Bermuda 11th May 1844.

Sir

where the boats come at Baiting Bay, there are two Houses, which I have discovered selling liquor to sailors without being possessed of a license or having the notice which the Act requires written over their doors, and as I am very desirous to prevent so much drunkenness, as is constantly exhibited here among the Brats crew, that those who may be punished for furnishing the means of such great mischief, should be dealt rigorously with; and the Act states that the penalty of Fifty Pounds, is recoverable in the Court of Kings Bench, I request you will be pleased to advise me how I am to proceed for the levying of this fine, which I think may in every respect benefit His Majesty's Service. I have the honor to be Sir

Sir

I return you Mr. Hill's Tender for erecting this Storehouse over the Tanks & Mr. King's Tender for filling up the Wharf & acquaint you that I see no reason why they should not be accepted.
