Bermuda 2^d June 1844

Sir In consequence of your letter of the 1st ultimo, forwarding Mr. Westenberg's application to be permitted to leave her duty as Matron of the Naval Hospital for the space of three or four months, to enable her to return to England to transact some private business which indispensibly requires her attendance, and recommending that this indulgence be granted her. Mr. Westenberg is hereby granted leave of absence for three months from date of her embarking for England, whether she has my permission to proceed accordingly.

Bermuda 6th June 1844

Sir In consequence of the explanation which Captain House has this day given me, respecting his deviation from the order of the R. M. S. Sir J. B. Warren I am induced to withdraw my order, directing his being tried for the same by a court martial, which I request you will be pleased to return

I have the honor to be Sir
