 Sir I have the honor to send your Excellency a Copy of an order which is the result of a communication that I received from your Excellency Lieutenant General Sir George Prevost. I have thought proper to refer to the Senior Officers of the Blockading Squadron under my Command. I have sent copies of the same to the Commander of the Force and wish it to be acted upon before it is known in America.
 I request your Excellency will be pleased to help it for the present; eventually I mean to give it all possible publicity to show the American Citizens from whom arises the evil which threatens them.

His Excellency
 Lieutenant General

Sir With the Men to be taken from Le Roy and the Crew of the Orpheus you will be pleased to complete the Complement of the Chesapeake and also to man the Orpheus upon the footing of a Troop ship sufficiently for her safe conduct to England under Command of the
 It is desirable that the Crew of the Chesapeake should be made up of Volunteers from the People above mentioned and that the Crew of the Orpheus should be made up of such of her own people as from being a long time of England may be anxious to return home. Keeping this Object in view. I wish to have the ^{leave} arrangement to your further discretion. If any Men should remain after the Chesapeake you will consider them as your property.
